

Olivia Newton-John - Angel eyes

Tom: G

G
 Tossing and turning last night I was burning Bm
C
 For you my love
Am F D
 I couldn't sleep or face one more night on my own
G Bm
 Somehow the wind and the rain seem to call out my name
 In the still of night
Am F
 The sound that I heard was your voice
D
 And the words, oh I knew
D G
 You called me angel eyes
 Child of the morning
Am D
 You and I will soon be together

My darling

G C
 Angel eyes, I'll be beside you
Am D G
 Through the night you called me your angel eyes

Closing my eyes I could still visualize
 All those golden days
 In letters you write you promise we'll share them again
 Oh darling nevertheless still I have to confess
 That last night I cried
 When a voice in the rain softly called out again
 I'll be home

Don't cry my angel eyes
 Child of the morning
 You and I will soon be together
 My darling
 Angel eyes, I'll be beside you
 Through the night you called me your angel eyes
 Angel eyes, child of the morning
 Your angel eyes
