

Olivia Newton-John - Changes

Tom: Bb

Verse1:

Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
 We said a million times we'd change,
 Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
 Can't bring myself to say those words again.

A piper never changes tune,

Eb F
 Eb Bb
 You can't grow apples on the moon.

Verse2:

Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
 The hurtful things we say still penetrate,
 Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
 And whispered sorries always come too late.
 Eb F
 Then the damage has been done,
 Eb Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
 What er we going to tell our son.

Chorus:

Acordes

Eb Bb
 I want to spare his broken heart.
 Eb Bb
 Brek it gently that we'll live apart
 F Eb
 Don't know the proper way to say
 Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
 He won't be seeing daddy ev'ry day.

Verse3:

Those weekly outings never work you know,
 Buying gifts and candy picture shows.
 They can't replace the man around,
 Your voice, your touch, your manly sound.

Verse4:

I guess the trouble is I love you still,
 And if it comes to that I always will.
 No, please don't cry, it's just too late
 Now hurry on, she's waiting at the gate

Chorus
