

Olivia Yells - Good Manners

tom:
 You sat there
 And I couldn't believe just a word you say
 Can imagine that
 You never really was in touch with reality
 Your kiss so sweet
 Your heart so cold
 I can believe I did
 Almost send you home
 Can't afford my sanity to live in the way you do
 Can't close my eyes and see miracles and hot air balloons
 So save your good manners
 They won't take you to Santa
 You touched me
 And Oh God I've waited for so long

So glad I did see
 That you were so wrong, that you were so wrong
 Your kiss so sweet
 Your heart so cold
 I can't believe I did
 Think I wasn't alone
 Can't afford my sanity to live in the way you do
 Can't close my eyes and see miracles and hot air balloons
 So save your good manners
 They won't take you to Santa
 If you could only see
 The look upon your face
 Finding out about
 Climate change
 Can't afford my sanity to live in the way you do
