

One Direction - Half The World Away

tom:
 G
 If you were a good friend
 Em D C G
 You'd always be there when I need it
 Em D C G
 'Cause I'm on my knees and, baby, I'm bleeding
 Em D C
 And it kills me that you're not around
 C G
 So you're not my girlfriend
 Em D C G
 Don't pretend that makes us nothing
 Em D C G
 Tell me you don't miss this feeling
 Em D C
 I'm starting to see who you are
 C G
 'Cause there's a time, there's a place
 D Em
 And I'm always gonna hear your name
 C G
 There's a right, there's a wrong
 D Em
 And now I see that all along
 C G
 I messed up, you'll be fine
 D Em
 I'm gonna sleep alone tonight
 A7 C
 Never gonna be the same
 'Cause you're half the world away
 C G
 A story you'd heard
 Em D C G
 And now you rest everything on these three words
 Em D C G
 Now I walk to you till my feet hurt
 Em D C
 So tell me that's not good enough
 C G
 And I started drinking
 Em D C G
 I don't know half of what I'm thinking
 Em D C G
 And deep in I'm scared I stopped breathing
 Em D C
 We've started to lose who we are
 C G
 'Cause there's a time, there's a place
 D Em

And I'm always gonna hear your name
 C G
 There's a right, there's a wrong
 D Em
 And now I see that all along
 C G
 I messed up, you'll be fine
 D Em
 I'm gonna sleep alone tonight
 A7 C
 Never gonna be the same
 C G Em
 I want you around, round, round
 C G D
 Are we going down, down, down
 C G Em
 I want you around, round, round
 C G D
 Are we going down, down, down
 C G D
 I want you around, round, round
 C G D
 Are we going down, down, down
 C G D
 Are we going down, down, down
 C G D
 Are we going down, down, (down)
 C G
 'Cause there's a time, there's a place
 D Em
 And I'm always gonna hear your name
 C G
 There's a right, there's a wrong
 D Em
 And now I see that all along
 C G
 I messed up, you'll be fine
 D Em
 I'm gonna sleep alone tonight
 A7 C
 Never gonna be the same
 C G
 there's a time, there's a place
 D Em
 And I'm always gonna hear your name
 C G
 There's a right, there's a wrong
 D Em
 And now I see that all along
 C G
 I messed up, you'll be fine
 D Em
 I'm gonna sleep alone tonight
 A7 C
 Never gonna be the same
 Cause you're half the world away
