C

We were running from the waves on the shallows
Am Trying to keep ourselves alone and out of sight
G
 All right, all right, all right
C You were talking about the night when I cashed out
Am
 Traded glances as I stole your lovers light
F
 All right, all right, all right
F That's how I recall it and you and I

C I remember it, it was a night just like this
Am
G One of those moments that just slip
F But you just feel it from your heart to your fingertips, yeah
C And I remember it, it was a late summer bliss
Am
G One of those moments that just slip
F But you feel it from your heart to your fingertips, yeah

(C Am G F)

F And I remember you, you were first on my list
G
Am One of those moments that just slip
G But you feel it from your heart to your fingertips, yeah
F I remember us, you were a late summer bliss
G
Am One of those moments that just slips
G But you feel it from your heart to your fingertips, yeah

C We were drinking from the same old glasses
Am That we borrowed from my roommate down the hall, hall, hall
G
F Down the hall and you were like

C I remember it, it was a night just like this
Am
G One of those moments that just slip
F But you feel it from your heart to your fingertips, yeah
C And I remember it, it was a late summer bliss
Am
G One of those moments that just slip
F But you feel it from your heart to your fingertips, yeah
