

Opeth - Spring MCMLXXIV

Tom: C
Intro: E G Gb
E G Gb

E G Gb
On a wind that's sailing through the morning
E G Gb
I have cut the harness off of my heart
E G Gb
On a tide that's rising with the dawning
E G Gb
I find I belong inside the dark
(E G Gb)
(E G Gb)

A A-
And when the waves roll in to cover me in shame
C7 Bb7
I avoid another sign of the efforts made in vain
A A-
I am just another ripple in the current of an age
C7 Bb7
Another crossed out name on another wrinkled page
Am
Carry me home
Am
Carry me home
Am G F7
Carry me home
Am
Carry me home
Am
Carry me home
Am
Carry me home
Am G F7
Carry me home
Am
Carry me home
Am G Gb
There's a dream that tells me I am haunted

E G Gb
It comes to visit every fortnight or so
E G Gb
I wake up having lost all I have ever wanted
E G Gb
And a bleak apparition wants what I hold
(E G Gb11)
(E G Gb11)

A A-
And when the waves roll in to cover me in shame
C7 Bb7
I avoid another sign of the efforts made in vain
A A-
I am just another ripple in the current of an age
C7 Bb7
Another crossed out name on another wrinkled page

Am
Carry me home
Am
Carry me home
Am G F7
Carry me home
Am
Carry me home
Am
Carry me home
Am G F7
Carry me home
Am
Carry me home

Am C G
Should it disappear, should it go away?
F7 Dm7 E A
Would it mend the wounds I bare, the wound of love?
Am C G
Could it reappear like a familiar tale?
F7 Dm7 Em A
Like a broken friendship that snuffs the moonlight above
[Solo] E G F#

Acordes

