

Orla Gartland - Oh God

tom:
 D
 I look at you and I know how I felt
 All those summers ago, then I swore not to tell
 I'm swallowed up by this Catholic guilt

Oh, God

[Riff]

A
 If I always do what I'm told
 I'll be bitter at fifty years old

 Wasted my time
 Wasted my worry on the little things

A
 If you always just laugh it off

G D
 Oh, I won't be opening up

A
 We kissed on the bed

 It messed with my head

G D E
 Does that mean nothing to you?

 This can't be easy on his side

 Laying there motionless each night

 A head full of heat, skin, sweat, sin

 Tangled up feet and now clutching at sheets thinking
