

Oscar Isaac - The Death Of Queen Jane

Tom: G
Intro: G C G C

Queen Jane lay in labor full nine days or more
'Til her women grew so tired, they could no longer there
They could no longer there
"Good women, good women, good women as you be
Will you open my right side and find my baby
And find my baby"
"Oh no," cried the women, "That's a thing that can never be
We will call on King Henry and hear what he may say
And hear what he may say"
King Henry was sent for, King Henry did come

Saying, "What does ail you, my lady?
Your eyes, they look so dim
Your eyes, they look so dim"
"King Henry, King Henry, will you do one thing for me?
Will you open my right side and find my baby
And find my baby"
"Oh no," cried King Henry, "That's a thing that I can never do
If I lose the flower of England, I shall lose the branch too
I shall lose the branch too"
There was fiddling and dancing on the day the babe was born
But poor Queen Jane beloved, she lay cold as a stone
Lay cold as a stone
