

Oscar Lang - She Likes Another Boy

tom:
 Oh no, she likes another boy
 And I'm feeling sad
 And at the end of the day
 I'll know there was something that we had
 I see her kissing with my eyes
 And it makes me mad
 But at the end of the day
 I know she don't love him that bad
 And if that's so, I'll wait around
 'Cause, it will take a little time to let you go
 I watch her from across the room

She dances so nice
 And if I see her again
 I'm not so sure we'll just be friends
 I want to get a little closer
 So let me in
 And if you push me away
 Baby that's where I'll stay?
 And if that's so, I'll wait around
 'Cause, it will take a little time to let you go
 And if that's so, I'll wait around
 'Cause, it will take a little time to let you go
 And if that's so, I'll wait around
 'Cause, it will take a little time to let you go
