

Our Last Night - A World Divided

```
Intro: Am Ab F Am Ab F E
                 Ab
It's hard to be afraid of me so you don't understand
     Am
                 Ab
I'm hanging on the edge but you won't reach for my hand
                            Ab
If we came face to face, you would see no difference between (We are the same)
     Am
If we let the hate radiate out of us like a sun, watch it burn through our veins
(Am Ab)
Divided by the colors, split by our beliefs

Am

C

G
Forced against each other, nothing's as it seems
But between what was, we could forget it all
                            C
To feel with fate, we could start to change a world divided and afraid
Am Ab F
A world divided and afraid
(Am Ab F E)
                                      (The G and D barre
chords sound better here)
 The room wasn't lies, all a surprise (?)
  (Leaving us on separate sides)
```

```
(It's the same strum pattern as the first part)
 I just let [indecipherable lyrics]
  (These lines are here to keep us in the dark)
(Am Ab)
Divided by the colors, split by our beliefs
Forced against each other, nothing's as it seems
But between what was, we could forget it all
To feel with fate, we could start to change a world divided
and afraid
(Am Ab F E)
 We need to break the cycle of hate
              Ab
 We need to break the cycle of hate
Am Ab
Am
Divided by the colors, split by our beliefs
 Αm
Forced against each other, nothing's as it seems
     Am
                C
                                G
But between what was, we could forget it all
                             C
To feel with fate, we could start to change a world divided
Am Ab F
                                    Am Ab F E
A world divided and afraid
```

Acordes

