

Over The Garden Wall - Frog's Lullaby

tom: Bb

At night, when the lake, is a mirror Cm

And the moon rides the waves to the shore Dm Cm

A single soul sets his voice singing D7 Gm

Content to be slightly forlorn Cm F

A song rises over the lilies Bb Cm

Sweeps high to clear over the reeds Dm Cm

And over the bulrushes' swaying D7 Gm

Cm F

To pluck at a pair of heartstrings

Two voices now they are singing F Bb

Then ten as the melody soars A7 Dm

Round the shimmering pond, all are joining in song Ab Gm Cm

As it carries their reverie on Cm Fm

Over the treetops and mountains Bb Cm

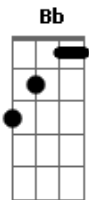

Over the blackened ravines Dm Cm

Then softly it falls by a house near a stream D7 Gm

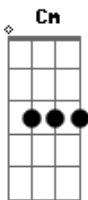

And over the garden wall Cm F

To thee Bb
