

Padre Zezinho - For a Little Girl

tom:

One day a little girl came after me
 She said she had to have an interview
 A pencil and a paper in her hand
 Those beautiful blue eyes open to life
 And looked into my eyes with friendly Love
 To ask a question: Happiness? What is it?

You love as Jesus used to love
 You dream as Jesus used to dream
 You think as Jesus used to think
 You live as Jesus used to live

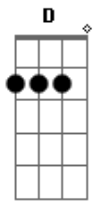

You feel as Jesus felt for people
 You smile and cry the way he did it

And by the end of day I tell you
 That you'll be as happy as you want to be

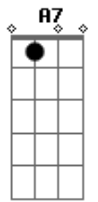

She heard what I had said and looked at me
 She said I was so nice and talked so well
 She said she wondered if I could repeat
 But please I should talk easy, not too fast
 And once again those beautiful blue eyes
 Were asking me happiness? What is it?

As soon as I had finished every word
 She kept on looking at her little book
 And suddenly She jumped into my arms
 With tears in her beautiful blue eyes
 And kissed me her good bye with tender mood
 And left me saying what I said to her
