G
Sittin' on a bench at West Town Mall
He sat down in his overalls and asked me

You waitin' on a woman
G
I nodded yeah and said how 'bout you
He said son since nineteen fifty-two I've been

Waitin' on a woman

Am
When I picked her up for our first date
F
I told her I'd be there at eight
C
And she came down the stairs at eight-thirty
Am
She said I'm sorry that I took so long
F
Didn't like a thing that I tried on
But let me tell you son she sure looked pretty
Dm
Yeah she'll take her time but I don't mind

Waitin' on a woman

He said the wedding took a year to plan
You talk about an anxious man, I was nervous

And then he nudged my arm like old men do

And said, I'll say this about the honeymoon, it was worth it

Waitin' on a woman

And I don't guess we've been anywhere
f
She hasn't made us late I swear
Sometimes she does it just 'cause she can do it
Am
Boy it's just a fact of life
F
It'll be the same with your young wife
Might as well go on and get used to it
Dm
She'll take her time 'cause you don't mind
