

Panic! At The Disco - All By Yourself

tom: G

[Primeira Parte]

If you give a listen
You sweet little kitten
Sittin' downstairs in your room
Wood panel walls
Rock posters from the mall
Playin' just for you

[Pré-Refrão]

When the houselights dim and the show begins
All the aliens touch down on stage
If we can read the scripts of our future
We would never turn the page
Live forever in a day

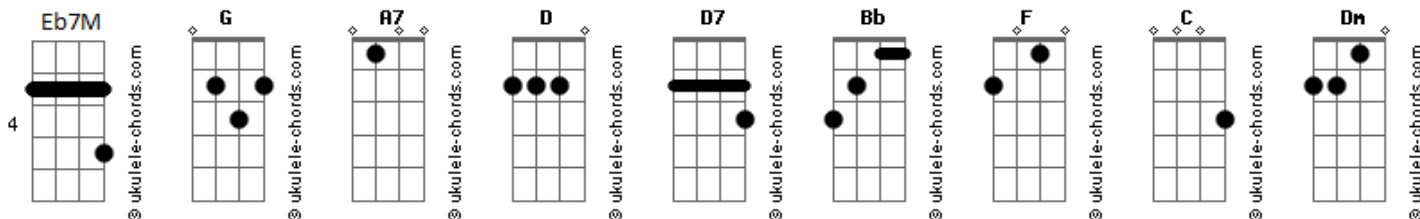

[Refrão]

All by yourself, all by yourself
You can change everything all by yourself
All by yourself, all by yourself
You're the queen, you're the king
All by yourself

[Segunda Parte]

You always hated sports
You buzzed your hair short
Dyed it pink to piss them off
With a handpoke tattoo
That made a monster out of you
But you're beautiful, you're tough

Acordes

[Pré-Refrão]

When the summer ends and school's back in
You feel trapped in the afterglow
3 minutes, 30 seconds on the rock and roll record
Is all you need to know
Live forever in a day

[Refrão]

All by yourself, all by yourself
You can change everything all by yourself
All by yourself, all by yourself
You're the queen, you're the king
All by yourself

[Ponte]

It's you and me
It's you and me, Yeah!
Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!

We live forever
We live forever
You and me
It's you and me
We're gonna live forever in a day
Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!

[Refrão]

All by yourself, all by yourself
You can change everything all by yourself
All by yourself, all by yourself
You're the queen, you're the king
All by-- yourself
