

Panic! At The Disco - Collar Full

Intro: G A D Bm
We've waited so damn long, we're sick and tired
I won't leave any doubt or stone unturned
                   D
I've got a collar full of chemistry from your company
             A D
So maybe tonight i'll be the libertine
Show me your love, your love D Bm
Gimme more but it's not enough
Show me your love, your love
Before the world catches up
Cuz there's always time for second guesses, I don't wanna know
If you're gonna be the death of me, that's how I wanna go
(G A D Bm)
You've got it all worked out with so little time G A D Bm
Memories that i'd blackout if you were mine G A D
You've got a pocket full of reasons why you're here tonight {\color{blue}G}
So, baby, tonight just be the death of me
