He was the congregations vagrant
With an unrequited love
When your passion's exultation
Then finding refuge is not enough
She was the youngest of the family
And the last to be let go
When they decided they would try and make it on their own

Refrão:
Oh memories whered you go?
You were all ive ever known
How I miss yesterday
And how I let it fade away
Whered you go

Verso:
When July Became December
Their Affection Fought The Cold
But They Couldnt Quite Remember
What Inspired Them To Go
And it was beautifully depressing
Like a streetcar named desire
They were fighting for their love that had started growing tired

Refrão:
Oh memories whered you go?
You were all ive ever known
How I miss yesterday
And how I let it fade away
Whered you go

Verso:
When the money lost momentum
And the bills were piling high
Then the smile had finally faded from the Apple of their eye
They were young and independent
And they thought they had it planned
Shouldve known right from the start
You can't predict the end

Refrão:
Oh memories whered you go?
You were all ive ever known
How I miss yesterday
And how I let it fade away
Whered you go
