

Panic! At The Disco - Northern Downpour

Tom: A
Intro: E A

E A
If all our life is but a dream,
fantastic posing greed.

A
Then we should feed our jewelry to the sea.
Dbm E
For diamonds do appear to be.
Dbm A A
Just like broken glass to me.

E A
Then she said she can't believe.
E
Genius only comes along
in storms of fabled foreign tongues.
Dbm E
Tripping eyes, and flooded lungs.
Dbm A A
Northern Downpour sends its love.

Abm Gbm Dbm
Hey moon, please forget to fall down.
Abm Gbm E
Hey moon, don't you go down.
E A
Sugarcane in the easy morning.
Dbm A
Weathervanes my one and lonely.

E A
The ink is running toward the page,
it's chasing off the days.

A
Look back at both feet and that winding knee.
Dbm E
I missed your skin when you were east.
Dbm A A
You clicked your heels and wished for me.

E A
Through playful lips made of yarn
that fragiled Capricorn unraveled words like moths upon old scarves.
Dbm E
I know the world's a broken bone,
but melt your headaches call it home.

Abm Gbm Dbm
Hey moon, please forget to fall down.
Abm Gbm E
Hey moon, don't you go down.

E A
Sugarcane in the easy morning.
Dbm A
Weathervanes my one and lonely. (5X)

You are at the top of my lungs.
Drawn to the ones who never yawn.
