       And when it rains,
                                                            Oh, oh, I need the ending.
                                                                    В
              Α
                                                              Α
                                                            So why can't you stay
On this side of town it touches, everything.
Just say it again and mean it.
                                                            Just long enough to explain?
              Dbm11
We don't miss a thing, You made yourself a bed
                                                            [Bridge]
At the bottom of the blackest hole
                                                            Dbm11 F A
                                                            Take your time.
       Dbm11
And convinced yourself that
                                                            Dbm11 E A
                                                            Take my time.
It's not the reason you don't see the sun anymore

                                                            Take these chances to turn it around.
                                                            Take these chances, we'll make it somehow
And oh, oh, how could you do it?
                                                            Dbm11
                                                            And take these chances to turn it around.
