

Parenthesis - Saviour

Tom: Bb

I ask myself
 What am I doing here?
 I said oh god if you are real then please just set me free
 Then I remembered all the things that you have done for me
 The suffering that tore the veil and brought you close to me
 That's when I found myself kneeling desperately beside your feet
 Then I realised
 Loneliness could not make me weak
 Cos you are stronger
 You are greater
 Than this weight within
 Now I can say that I am yours

Cos you are
 The one who gave me strength
 You are
 Who took me to the end
 You are
 Lord you are my saviour

 You are
 Lord you are my saviour
 I tried to run
 Tried to hide
 But your love brought me back home
 It picked me up
 Pulled me in
 Showed me that I was not alone
 And now I know how far I can go
 With you standing right by my side
 And I will always run back to you

I tried to run
 Tried to hide
 But your love brought me back home
 It picked me up
 Pulled me in
 Showed me that I was not alone
 And now I know how far I can go
 With you standing right by my side
 And I will always run back to you

I tried to run
 Tried to hide
 But your love brought me back home
 It picked me up
 Pulled me in
 Showed me that I was not alone
