Some people say, man, she was hot
Back when she was younger
Yeah, well she was a dancer
When she lived in L.A.

Chorus 1:
Am D G
She was someone's baby doll
C C A
A beauty queen to someone long ago,
D
From the midnight show, and if you
G D D D
Close your eyes, you hear the music playing
G D D D
You can see her dancing underneath the spotlight, and
G D D D
When she sleeps, she dreams she's back in Hollywood
Am
Back when all the world was young,
D G (start of intro)
And she was someone's baby doll

Repeat Intro

Verse 3:
She stops and checks her reflection
In the bathroom on her lunch break
She says I still look good for
Someone half of my real age

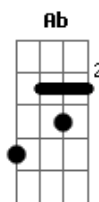

Verse 4:
Some people say "Man, I bet she Still makes love like an earthquake."
Yeah, but man, she ain't easy
She ain't lettin' you in, my friend, my friend

G D D D
You can see her dancing underneath the spotlight, and
G D D D
When she sleeps, she dreams she's back in Hollywood
Am
When she was a younger girl
D
A pretty heart in a tainted world
Am
Not sure who you wanna be
Your Daddy's little drama queen
Am
I hope that when you find yourself,
D
You're more than just a baby doll
