

Pat Green - Barricades

Tom: G

D E G G x2 Bm7 G x2

Bm7 G
close my eyes and ask myself a question
Bm7 G
why is it i do what i do
Bm7 G
am i looking for some happy definition
Bm7 G
of life and love in the corners of the truth
Bm7 G
or am i just some curious bystander
Bm7 G
looking at the world through a child's eyes
Bm7 G
sunlight always shining on my shoulders
Bm7 G
while the storm rages on deep inside, deep inside

D C
and it seems so hard to keep it all together
Gb G
when the walls are falling down on every side
D C
yeah, but i'll be damned if i give up on it easy
Gb G

i've worked too hard to get the barricades this high
-----

Bm7 G
now this world's a stage we're meant to play on Bm7 G
direction from inside on what to do
Bm7 G
i know i should have all of the answers
Bm7 G
deep inside i haven't got a clue, got a clue

chorus

break: G D A x6

bridge:

G D A
told myself that i would be okay
G D A
told myself that i'd be alright no doubt G D A
somewhere low i know that i've been lying G
can't believe it took me thirty years
D A
figure that shit out

chorus
