

Pat Green - Don't Break My Heart Again!

Tom: G
Intro: C G

Verse 1:

Well she was standing there at the edge of outta control.

Hair wild, and her eyes filled with the pain.

She took her heart on a string and tied it to a red balloon,
and she watched it fly up high into the clouds.

Don't break my heart again. We're one in the same.

Baptized by tears and washed in the blame.

You can let your heart go. But I will hunt you down.

Your love is all I wanna win.... Don't break my heart again.

C G

Verse 2:

He dreams of a girl with her heart tied to a red balloon.

He wants her so bad, she wants him too.

Am7 G

There standing there at the edge of another lonely night.
House empty and the walls are caving in.

Don't break my heart again. We're one in the same.

Baptized by tears and washed in the blame.

You can let your heart go. But I will hunt you down.

Your love is all I wanna win.... Don't break my heart again.

Bridge:

Hard to find love. It's hard to find love.

It's hard to find love. It's hard to find love.

Chorus:

Don't break my heart again. We're one in the same.

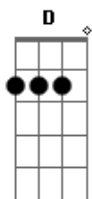

Baptized by tears and washed in the blame.

You can let your heart go. But I will hunt you down.

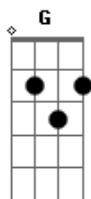

Your love is all I wanna win.... Don't break my heart again.
