

Pat Green - Elvis

Tom: A

^E
A deep thick plush blue carpet at my feet
A peacock stained glass window staring back at me
^D A nine foot crushed white velvet sofa in the hallway ^E

^E
There's a TV in the kitchen

She's cooking in her panties
Flippin' them little sandwiches likes she's flippin' her hair
^D Sure is nice to have someone to hold me ^E
Chorus:

^G
I'm the king of kings you see
^{A7}
Everything you need
^E
Baby, I'm Elvis

baby, baby, I'm Elvis
baby, baby, I'm Elvis

(Ray Benson)

^E
I got a hundred golden records in this one room

I got fifty golden knobs upon my doors

^D
^E I got one black twenty-five foot stretch Cadillac to drive you home

To drive you home

(Pat)

^E
Downstairs there's a room in the basement

It's mostly made of yellow and black

^D
Some folks call it the jungle

I just think it's a nice place to relax ^E

Chorus:

^G
I'm the king of kings you see
^{A7}
Everything you need
^E
Baby, I'm Elvis

baby, baby, I'm Elvis

baby, baby, I'm Elvis

Instrumental : ^G ^{A7} ^E x2

(Willie)

^E
Once a year they all come to see me

I watch them throwing flowers at my toes

^D
There's a line that stretches down the driveway

Past my plane, ends at the gift shop ^E

Chorus:

^G
I'm the king of kings you see
^{A7}
Everything you need

^E
Baby, I'm Elvis

^G
I'm the king of kings you see

^{A7}
Everything you need

^E
Baby, I'm Elvis

baby, baby, I'm Elvis

baby, baby, I'm Elvis

^G ^{A7} ^E x2
