

Pat Green - I Like Texas

Tom: A

CHORUS:

Yeah, I like Texas, Ain't it fine here
 Like to pick my guitar down in Lukenbach
 And drink that Shiner Bock beer
 Yeah I like Texas man there ain't no doubt
 Just listen to me cause I know what I'm talkin about

Well from Dalhart to Del Rio and out El Paso way
 I'll be doin fine on Houston time
 When the sun sets on the Copano Bay
 Well from way up where the Red River flows
 And on down to the Rio Grande
 I was born a native Texican
 And I'm proud to say that I am
 Well there's old dancehalls and the little cafe's

Where you can get a taste of the Lone Star state
 Strap on your boots and have yourself a laugh or two
 Well there's no line dancin, just straight romancin
 Hill country love is what I fancy
 Where streams run clear and Lord the skies they are so blue

CHORUS

Then the spoken verse about the road trip weekend.
 It's a two day old burrito on a lukewarm beer to go
 On the Sunday side of a roadtrip weekend
 Lordy I was feelin so low
 Then somebody flipped on the jukebox
 And I heard old Bob Wills say
 Won't you stay all night, stay a little longer
 So I held on another day

Acordes
