

Pat Green - Rain In Lafayette

Tom: D
Intro: D G 4x

Verse 1:
D
Home from church now, let your hair down,
G A D
It's the Lord's favorite day.
A
There's a dance river tavern where
D
The drums and fiddles play.
So wear your new shoes, your red boots,
G D
Your dress I can't forget.
A
I like to watch you dance around me like
D G D G
The rain in Lafayette.

Verse 2:
D
Summer's coming, my brain is humming,
G D
Something only you can do.
A
And the way your eyes are smilin' I know
D
Mine must be shining too.
G D

You're my lovely, my only, my one, my alouette.
A
I like to watch you dance around me like
D
The rain in Layfayette.

Verse 3:
D
So let the rain fall, it can't hurt us at all,
G D
We'll get as wet as we can get.

A
I like you watch you dance around me like
D
The rain in Layfayette.

D
So let the rain fall, it can't hurt us at all,
G D
We'll get as wet as we can get.

A
I like you watch you dance around me like
D
The rain in Layfayette.
