

Pat Green - Trailer Park Tune

Tom: G

^G Mardie had a boutique on the corner,
^G Stanley was a trucker by his trade.
^G And everytime that Mardie would shake her tail feathers,
^G Well it would go and make ol Stanley's day.

^G Well they'd go out bowling every Tuesday,
^G Down there at the Waco Bare lanes.

^G They'd roll a couple spares,
^G Drink a couple beers,

^G Then it's off to the trailer,
^G Willie Nelson all the way.

^D Yeah, life here in the trailer park was fine
^D And you know that we've been livin' it everyday.

^D I've got me a goodlookin' woman,
^D I got me some indoor plumbin'

^D And I wouldn't have it any other way.

^G Well the trailer was a sight to see, don't ya know?
^G

Now, Stanley said "Man, doublewide is the only way to go.

^G You got the hurricane package, tires upon the roof.
^G Got a satalite dish and coon foil in the window.

^D Yeah, life here in the trailer park was fine
^D And you know that we've been livin' it everyday.

^D I've got me a goodlookin' woman,
^D I got me some indoor plumbin'

^D And I wouldn't have it any other way.

^G Well things sure got a little tight that summer.
^G Mardie had to take a second job.

^G Semms money was the answer,
^G So she became a dancer,

^G Down there at the local topless bar.

^D Yeah, life here in the trailer park was fine

^D And you know that we've been livin' it everyday.
^D I've got me a goodlookin' woman,

^D I got me some indoor plumbin'
^D And I wouldn't have it any other way.
