

Pat Green - You Gotta Know

Tom: G

Am G
I got a sister out in Charlotte
Am G
I love her cause she's crazy in her head
Am G
I got a brother he's a pilot
Am G
Sometimes I pray I'll just see him again
Am G
My father told me once he said son
Am G
Only a fool stays out at night
Am G
Well it's 4 a.m. and I'm out here on the boulevard
Am G
I got no money but you know I'm doin' alright

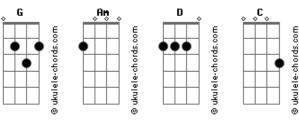

Chorus

Yeah, you gotta know

C
There ain't nothin' bout money

G
That's ever gonna save your soul.

Acordes

And the dreams of the young

C

Have never been nothing

G

But the last request of the old.

Am

D

Heaven is a fiddle on a late night radio.

Am

You can't find redemption,

D

Brother if ya got no soul.

C

You Gotta Know.

Her name was Amy, she was a friend of mine Wanted to be a rich man's wife

She fell in love with cars and expensive wine

She must have forgot what it means to live her life

Chorus

Weathered hands on a steel guitar He plays every evening till they turn them bar lights down You know he's tired of them dammed old cigarettes Now he's saving up his money so he can move on out of town

Chorus Twice
