

Patrick Watson - Here Comes The River

tom:

Bm

Bm7

The windows turned to fishbowls

E

The city to seas

A

D

The cars were drowning underneath your feet

Bm7

E

The children were swimming from the top of the trees

D

Crowds of umbrellas were staring in mis-belief

Bm7

Well Mary kept sewing

E

Holding on to her TV

D

Even if the water was rising past her knees

Bm7

Now here comes the river

E

Coming on strong

D

And you can't keep your head above these troubled waters

Bm7

Here comes the river

E

Over the flames

D

Sometimes you got to burn to keep the storm away

Bm7

Sometimes

E

Sometimes you got to just

(Bm7 E A D D)

Bm7

E

Nobody told you it was going to be this hard

D

Something's been building behind your eyes

Bm7

You lost what you hold onto

E

You're losing control

D

There ain't any words in this world that's gonna cure this pain

Bm7

E

A

Sometimes it's going to fall down on your shoulders

D

But you're going to stand through it all

Bm7

E

Here comes the river coming on strong

D

And you can't keep your head above these troubled waters

Bm7

E

Here comes the river over the flames

D

Sometimes you got to burn to keep the storm away

Bm7

Sometimes

E

Sometimes you're cast adrift

(Bm7 E A D D)
