Intro: B B

Abm Dbm
I?m an ordinary man

Doing all the things an ordinary man can

With my ordinary wife

I live a very ordinary life

Ordinary me

I drive an ordinary car

It doesn?t get me very far

To get my ordinary pay

It?s such an ordinary day

Ordinary me

And when I die, no one will weep

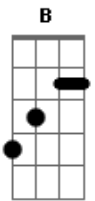

Nobody cares about me

Why do you treat me this way?

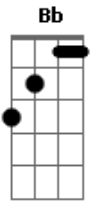

Is it because I?m so ordinary?

I?ve got ordinary kids

They?re already off to college

They?ve got kids of their own

They got an ordinary home

Ordinary me

I?m an ordinary old man

Grandkids come by when they can

Johnny and Julie

We?re such an ordinary family

Ordinary me

And when I die, no one will weep

Nobody cares about me

Why do you treat me this way?

Is it because I?m so ordinary?

And when I die, no one will weep

Nobody cares about me

Why do you treat me this way?

Is it because I?m so ordinary?
