

Paul McCartney - Alligator

Tom: G
Intro: /Riff: A2 Em (2x)

A2 Em
I want someone to come home to
A2 Em
I need somewhere I can sleep
Em
I need a place where I can rest my weary bones
Em Em Em G
And have a conversation not too deep

G Bm Em
Everybody else is busy doing better than me
C G
And I can see why it is
C Em
They got someone setting them free
C Em
Someone breaking the chains
C B7
Someone letting them be

Repetir riff
A2 Em
I want someone who can save me
A2 Em
When I come home from the zoo
Em
I need somebody who's a sweet communicator
Em Em Em Em G
I can give my alligator to
G Bm Em
Everybody seems to know what they are talking about
C G
And I can see why it is
C Em
They got someone breaking them out
C Em

Someone finding the key
C B7
Someone setting them free
G Bm Em
Could you be that person for me
G Bm Em
Would you feel right setting me free
G Bm Em
Could you dare to find my key

Repetir riff
A2 Em
I want someone who can bail me
A2 Em
When I get up to my tricks
Em
I need somebody used to Dealing with a sinner
Em Em Em G
Whenever I get in a fix
G Bm Em
Everybody else is busy doing better than me
C G
And I can see why it is
C Em
They got someone setting them free
C Em
Someone breaking the chains
C B7
Someone letting them be
G Bm Em
Could you be that person for me
G Bm Em
Would you feel right setting me free
G Bm Em
Could you dare to find my key

Final: A2 Em (7x)

Acordes

