At the mercy, at the mercy
D                      D
At the mercy of a busy road
Who can handle such a heavy load?

Em               Em
At the mercy, at the mercy
D                      D
At the mercy of a busy day
D                          G7   D
We can think of nothing more to say

D               Gbm          Bm
If you show me love I won't refuse
Bm                      G
I know you'd never make me choose
D        Gb7      Bm D        Bm     Bm
Between the love I've got and the love I'd lose

Bm                          Bm
Sometimes I'd rather run and hide
Bm                          Bm
Then stay and face the fear inside

At the mercy, at the mercy
At the mercy of a busy day

At the mercy, at the mercy
D                      D
At the mercy of a busy road
D                          G7   D
We can watch the universe explode

D  A  G  D  G  D  A

D               Gbm          Bm

I guess you'd rather see me grow
D    Gb7   Bm D        Bm     Bm
Into a better man than the one you know

Bm                          Bm
Sometimes my head is hanging low
Bm                          Bm
It's time to get on with the show
