

Paul McCartney - Really Love You

Intro: [E7 A E A B Well, I need you through the night, when the morning comes, I love the light. But in the night-time that dark is black. Come on baby, you got to help me get back. E7 Α7 I love you, oh yeah, I realy love you, oh yeah. Inter:[E

Do one thing, do one thing for me. If you've got love then let me see. If you feel it in your heart then show it right now. You know I love you baby, I gotta get to you, get to you Oh yeah, I really love you, oh yeah, I really love you.

You know it's true.

I really love you day and night. Yeah, I really love you in the morning light. I really love you, sure be right. Come on little baby, gotta find out find out somehow. Yeah, yeah, really love you, oh yeah, really love you.

I love the things you say and do. I can't get over, how much I love you. You know you do something special to me. And that's the way I want it always to be, yeah. Oh yeah, really love you, oh yeah, I really love you.

I need your love like a bear needs a break. I need your heart, baby hopping on a plate. I need the sunshine of your smile. Help me walk, help me walk that extra mile. Little baby, I love you. Oh yeah, you know I really love you. Oh yeah, you know it's true, oh yeah, I love you. (I love you.)
