

Paul McCartney - Somebody Who Cares

Tom: C

When your <sup>Am</sup>body is coming <sup>Em7</sup>apart at the seams
 and the <sup>C</sup>whole thing's feeling <sup>G</sup>low, <sup>E</sup> you're <sup>Am</sup>convincing yourself <sup>Am7</sup>
 that there's <sup>Am</sup>nobody there, <sup>FMaj7</sup>I know, <sup>F</sup>I know how you feel. <sup>Em7</sup>

Like somebody has taken
 the wheels of your car,
 when you had somewhere to go,
 well it's annoying
 not going to get very far.
 I know, but somebody cares.

There's <sup>A</sup>always someone, <sup>Bm7</sup>
<sup>E</sup>somewhere you should know by now. <sup>Gbm</sup>

<sup>Em7</sup>If you don't know it, how will it find you? <sup>Dm7</sup>
<sup>Em7</sup>How will we know your whereabouts? <sup>F</sup>

Inter: with chords of the first part.
 I know how you feel.

Like somebody has taken
 the wheels of your car,
 when you had somewhere to go,
 well it's frustrating
 not going to get very far.
 I know, but somebody cares.

There's always someone, ...
 I know how you feel.
