

Pearl Jam - Breath

Tom: A

lot of their own stuff during this part.

Here are the "Hendrix-Style" Octaves that Mike plays at the beginning (and end). Get the feel of sliding the octaves...don't just play them like single notes.

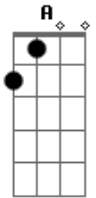

These are the chords played during "Here it comes, There it goes, etc."
I give the octaves that Mike plays as a fill to this part. If you can get the octaves at the beginning of the song, you'll be able to figure out this fill.

This is a pretty lame part of the tab. I figured that it would take tons of time to get all the natural harmonics and improvised notes that they play. This just gives you 1 idea to base how to play the song during Eddie's vocals. Remember that it is an E to D pattern and improvise. I have never heard this song live (would like to), but I would bet Mike and Stone do a

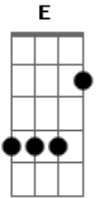

Here it comes,
...
If I knew where it was, I

Take it from here... Teach it to a friend...

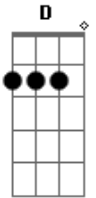

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com