The tuning for this song is awkward.  It's just over 1/2 a step down.  I recommend you tune down the 1/2 step, then tune your E(b) string to the intro of the song.  It's roughly 3/4 of a step. I'll tab up the rest of the song soon, just it's quite long so I thought I'd submit the solo on it's own to start off with.
Rhythm guitar is pretty simple, the mutes have the same feel to them as the notes in the little bridge part just before.  It plays it for quite a while, and I've shown both guitars together later on in the tab.
Not much timing is shown on the solo, but the basics are there, underneath the tab you'll also see numbers in parenthesis every now and then, this shows how far
you should bend.
