If I could reach to the sky and touch it for my country

Get some on my fingers take in its smell

The smell of victory land of the free olympic

Dream olympic dream

Dream my promotion scheme how hard can it

Be how can I jump how high can I

Throw how high I run how long can I

Hold my breath and stay underwater and wave my legs around in perfect

Unison with my partner who doesn't really understand me or my olympic

Dream my olympic dream

 I'll be like Dwight Stone I'll be like Bruce Jenner

I'll be like that girl who trained all her life as a distance runner

And then tripped with a quarter mile to go but I

I will get up and I will run I will run with the Georgia peach breeze

And I I will win I will win my my olympic

Dream my olympic dream the gold's just not

Good enough and I don't even think of the bronze
