

Pedro Autz - Hope and Faith

Tom: D

Intro: D

In the middle of the night,
Lying down with your sorrows
I told you don't need to Carry the world

Building bridges to find Something you are searching for
The truth of your lies

Tomorrow will be good
Look the sun is rising
On the horizon

Tomorrow the hurts will heal
Inside your hollow heart
And fill it with hope and faith

And you will smile with your fate

So, wake up, run, explode
Open your arms and show
The world you are much more
Than numbers or odds
Paint the views and
Colour your life

Because black and white
Aren't fine at all
You won't fall
With hope and faith
