

Peter Frampton - (I'll Give You) Money

```
Intro: E G A C C A (3x)
                                                                    For love forever
                                                                                               RIFF 1
I'll give you money
                                                                   Watching from behind everything
I'll give you lovin'
                                                                   (instrumental)
I'll give you everything
But heaven above
                                                                                    G A
                                                                   I'll give you sun and...
                                                                   Lost all my money
I threw it all away
I'll give you all I have right now
               G A
I'll give you money
                                                                   But now I'm happy
I'll give you lovin
F E
                                                                   I'll give you all my love right now
Everything
                                                                                  G A
                                                                   I'll give you money
                                                                   I'll give you lovin'
I'll give you kisses
Sweet as honey
I'll do you everything
                                                                    FEGA
'Cept make the sun shine
                                                                   Everything
             Bb
                                                                   Everything
If I could change the world right now
                                                                   Money- everything
           G A
Make you happy
                                                                   Everything
                                                                   Money- everything
Money- everything
Stop your cryin'
Everything
                                                                   Money- everything
Everything
                                                                   Money- everything
                                                                   Money- everything
                                                                   Money- everything
Money- everything
                                G
All of my life I've been dreaming
 'Till you came my way
                                                                   Money- everything...
```

All of your life aren't you searchin'
