

Peter Hammill - Nadir's Big Chance

Tom: D
Intro: A G D

I've been hanging around, waiting for my chance to tell you what I think about the music that's gone down to which you madly danced - frankly, you know that it stinks I'm gonna scream, gonna shout, gonna play my guitar until your body's rigid and you see stars

Look at all the jerks in their tinsel glitter suits pansying around; look at all the nerks in their leather platform boots, making with the heavy sound...

I'm gonna stamp on the stardust and scream till I'm ill if the guitar don't get ya, the drums will { C D C D A C D C D A C D C D G A D F } x4 D A
Now's my big break - let me up on the stage I'll show you what it's all about; enough of the fake bang your feet in a rage, tear down the walls and let us out!
We're more than mere morons, perpetually conned
so come on everybody, smash the system with the song Smash the system with the song!
