

Phantom Planet - Hey Now Girl

Tom: A
Intro: Chords:
A, E, F#, E, x2
A, E, D, A x2

Well let me tell you I have seen a monster age of seventeen Who'll let you in to kick you out and knows what love is "all about"

Hey now girl I see you walking by
And long ago you used to stop and talk now you just wink your eye
and I'm surprised you look all grown up A champagne glass next to a paper cup
I stopped you just to say it
Hey now girl
Her tongue is black haven't you heard her mutter those three dirty words

For all those foolish boys to hear like a siren bringing ships so near Hey now girl I see you walking by
And I remember how you used to smile or how hard you used to try
It's in your eyes and I'm in a trance
A winter chill next to a spring romance
I stopped you just to say it
Hey now girl
Hey now girl
Repeat intro chords:
A, E, F#, E, x2
A, E, D, A x2
Hey now girl
Hey now girl
Who let you out into this world?
Hey now girl
