Phillip Phillips - Trigger

```
Tom: G
                                                                Em
Intro: 2x: Em C Am
                                                                Please just leave me be
                                                                              C
                                                                                                         Am
                                                                I feel as though no one knows what goes on inside of me
Fm
 I heard the words come out of your mouth again
                                                                                              С
                                                                Then I turned to see it was too late to give you love
    Am
 So quietly you said
                                                                            Am
                                                                But it was too late to give you up
                             С
Fm
 I need someone to hold my heart again
                                                               Refrão:
 Like it felt when I was just a kid
                                                                Em
Fm
                        C
Will you take me far away
                                                                Inside your hand it holds the question to it all
                                                                                              Am
                   Am
 From this fear that pulls me near?
                                                                You start to pull the trigger, you start to pull the trigger
Fm
Will you take it out?
                                                                Inside your mind it goes where no one really knows
                             Am
                                                                C
                                                                                              Am
                                                                You start to pull the trigger, you start to pull the trigger
 What's inside of my mind, what's screaming out
                                                                Fm C
 Inside your hand it holds the question to it all
                                                                    And I saw how it all went down
                                                                   С
С
                                                                Fm
 You start to pull the trigger, you start to pull the trigger
                                                                     You picked it up and threw it out
                                                                Em C
Em
                                                                                                Em
Inside your mind it goes where no one really knows
                                                                    And I saw how it all went down
                                                                               (D)
                             Am
                                                                      Am
 You start to pull the trigger, you start to pull the trigger
                                                                    Again
(Em C Am)
                                                                Em
                                                                Inside your hand it holds the question to it all
 Verso:
                                                               С
                                                                                            Am
                                                                I start to pull the trigger, I start to pull the trigger
                                                               Em
Em
                                     С
 I saw the tears roll down from your eyes again
                                                                Inside my mind it goes where no one ever knows
   Am
                                                                                           Am
 So softly they fell
                                                                I start to pull the trigger, I start to pull the trigger
Fm
 I reached to you to wipe them off your chin
                                                                (Em C Am) 2x
                                                                (Em)
 But you stopped me and said
```

Acordes

