

Pierce The Veil - I'm Low On Gas And You Need a Jacket

Tom: D

(com acordes na forma de C)

Capostrate na 2ª casa

Intro: C G Em G F

As I choke, try to wash it down with something strong

Dry but the taste of blood remains

Cold, empty mattresses and falling stars

My, how they start to look the same

So keep in happiness

And torture me while I tell you

"Let's go in style"

A million hooks around

A million ways to die

Darling, it's cold outside

No, no more eyes to see the sun

You slide into bed while I get drunk

Slow conversations with a gun

Mean more than I've ever said to anyone

So keep in happiness

And torture me while I tell you

"Let's go in style"

A million hooks around

A million ways to die

Darling, let's go inside

It'll be alright

But last night, you said you ended up in Palm Springs dancing on tables

Almost fought some bitch at the club

Got kicked out of your hotel and lost your shoes

Well, fuck, what am I supposed to be, impressed?

You're just another set of bones to lay to rest

So I'll say goodnight, hope you had a really good time

And I will soon forget the color of your eyes and you'll forget mine

So keep in happiness

And torture me while I tell you

"Let's go in style"

A million hooks around

A million ways to die

Darling, let's go outside

It'll be alright

But last night, you said you ended up in Palm Springs dancing on tables

It'll be alright

But last night, you said you ended up in Palm Springs dancing on tables
