

Pierre Simões - Back To Milwaukee

Tom: D

I'm gonna back to Milwaukee, Milwaukee
 I really miss my beer in the mug and my babe on my body
 I'd like to see the SummerFest, Veteran's Park and Reiman Aquarium,
 (The big sharks)
 I want to see The Brewers team and to eat the famous Colby cheese
 (Yeah, it's well-known)
 I'll pass on Northern store to enjoy chocolate
 (Hum, so delicious)
 I'm Waking up afternoon, after snooze
 From window, I see a big lagoon, near my room
 I hear Beatles rocky raccoon, on front saloon
 I put my trunks; I'll swim soon, in the pool
 I'm going back to Milwaukee

I want to see the Mitchell Park Horticultural Society so talked (too famous)
 Pretty paintings of Georgia O'Keeffe on Art Museum (it's amazing!)
 To know the Miller Brewing Company and the Pabst Mansion, Elvis Presley's motorcycle on the Harley-Davidson Museum
 (What more could I to want of this gem of Wisconsin?)
 Pretty and cozy town, good people and ahead of it's time
 I want to see the legendary Bucks team busting on the court, (Go! Go!)
 Let's drink the Lakefront beer to celebrate their victory, for these and others that I love come back to Milwaukee
 I put my crankshaft boots, return to my roots
 In the Street, I pick some bloom, some it too blue
 I'll meet my girl on County zoo, her name is Lou
