

Pierre Simões - The Rocky Mountains

Tom: G

^G
 When I take the road, very early in the morning,
^C ^G ^F
 I have the route drawn. clear and meticulously
^G ^F
 After a long time, running fast on two wheels
^C
 Under sun and rain
^G
 it emerges on landscape
^F ^C ^G
 It rises sovereign in the firmament
^F ^C ^G
 It seems to want to welcome me like a son
^F ^C ^G
 I do not know where it starts, or where it ends
^F ^C ^D
 It knows I'm here to admire it.
^G ^F
 For God, all my reverence,
^C ^G
 All my prayer for the Rocky Mountains,
^G ^F
 I thank God for its grandeur,
^C ^G

And its nature, the Rocky Mountains
^G ^F
 I have eyes to gloat and see,
^C ^G
 In ecstasy, The Rocky Mountains
^G ^F
 My soul rejoices how the green
^C ^G
 it is seen on The rocky Mountains
^G ^F
 I am open-mouthed for that amazing enormity.
^C ^G
 So Wonderful place Blessed by God
^F
 I will tell my children and grandchildren
^C
 I had been here
^G
 I always I will be back
^F ^C ^G
 Since it emerged with the Laramide Orogeny
^F ^C ^G
 Time and nature carved it masterfully
^F ^C ^G
 Long ago, it was a huge ocean
^F ^C ^D
 Full of exotic fishes and ammonites
