

Pink Floyd - Fat Old Sun

Tom: C
(Gilmour)

Intr.: G

G D
When the fat old sun in the sky is falling
F C G
Summer evening birds are calling
G D
Summer sunday and a year
F C G G
The sound of music in my ears

G D F C
Distant bells, new mown grass smells so sweet
G D F C
By the river holding hands, roll me up and lay me down

C Bm Am7
And if you sit, don't make a sound.
G
Pick your feet up off the ground
C Bm Am7
And if you hear as the warm night falls
Dm
The silver sound from a time so strange
Gm Dm
Sing to me, Sing to me

F D G

G D
When that fat old sun in the sky is falling
F C G
Summer evening birds are calling
G D
Children's laughter in my ears

F C G
The last sunlight disappears
C Bm Am7
And if you sit, don't make a sound
G
Pick your feet up off the ground
C Bm Am7
And if you hear as the warm night falls
Dm
The silver sound from a time so strange,
Gm Dm
Sing to me, Sing to me
