

Pink Floyd - Summer '68

Tom: C
Intro: D G7M D G7M D Em G A7 D Em G A7 D

D G D G D
Would you like to say something before you leave?
Perhaps you'd care to state exactly how you feel.
We say goodbye before we've said hello.
A G D
I hardly even like you. I shouldn't care at all.
A G D
We met just six hours ago. The music was too loud.
A G D
From your bed I came today and lost a bloody year.
A G Bm7
And I would like to know, how do you feel?
F
How do feel?

D G D
Not a single word was said. They lied still without fears.
G D
Occasionally you showed a smile, but what was the need?

I felt the cold far too soon in a wind of ninety-five.
A G D
My friends are lying in the sun, I wish that I was there.
A G D
Tomorrow brings another town, another girl like you.
A G D A
G
Have your time before you leave to greet another man just to let me know,
