

Pink Floyd - The Narrow Way

Tom: F
Intro: C G7M C Em

Am Am Am
Following the path as it leads toward
Am- D D
The darkness in the north
Am Am Am
Weary stranger's faces show their sympathy
Am- D D
They've seen that hope before
A D
And if you want to stay for a little bit
A D
Rest your aching limbs for a little bit
E
For you the night is beckoning
D
And now you can't delay

E
You hear the night birds calling you
F
But you can't catch the words they say
E D A
And you realize you must be on your way

Am Am
Mystery swelling, creatures crawling
Am Am- D D D
Hear the roar get louder in your ears
Am Am
You know the folly was your own
Am Am- D D D
But the force behind can't conquer all your fears

A D
And if you want to stay for a little bit
A D

Rest your aching limbs for a little bit

E
For you the night is beckoning
D
And now you can't delay
E
You hear the night birds calling you
F
But you can't catch the words they say
E D A
And you realize you must be on your way

Am Am
Throw your thoughts back many years
Am Am- D D D
To the time when love was life with every morning
Am Am
Perhaps a day will come,
Am Am- D D D
When the match for me the curlers past warning

A D
And if you want to stay for a little bit
A D
Rest your aching limbs for a little bit

E
For you the night is beckoning
D
And now you can't delay
E
You hear the night birds calling you
F
But you can't catch the words they say
E D A
And you realize you must be on your way
