[Instumental part]

Go little record go. It is named by some guy named Joe. And the words are the letters of the words said electrically played for outer space and those who paid.
This song is twice occurred and nows it's time to go away on holiday.

From:

        I think this is the trill part (during each second verse)

Gb   B Bm   Gb
of   another   life

I had to play it tapping, but a faster player could do it with the left hand...

The middle instrumental is based on the intro...

This song is too fast for me. I guess I'll have to play it over and over til I get it right...
