

PJ Harding - Dear August (feat. Noah Cyrus)

tom:

Intro:

(Am)

Am C
Slowly, why's the morning come so slowly

F C
When I got no one to hold me through the dark?

Am C
Patient, they tell me that love is patient

F C
But it never wants to wait on my drunk heart

Am C
So I'll take all of my, all of my, all of my wasted love

F C
And turn it into wine, into wine, into wine in my cup, woah

Am C
Dear August, tell me that there's light

F C
At the end of all this starless night

Am C
Dear August, please don't let me fall

F C Am
'Cause I don't know where this road is headed anymore

Am C
Fading, now the summer heat is fading

F C
I spend every evening praying for the dawn

Save me, looking for someone to save me

F C
Give me everything you gave me, but you're scorned

Am C
So I'll take all of my, all of my, all of my wasted love

F C
And turn it into wine, into wine, into wine in my cup, woah

Am C
Dear August, tell me that there's light

F C
At the end of all this starless night

Am C
Dear August, please don't let me fall

F C Am
'Cause I don't know where this road is headed anymore, oh

Am C
Oh, dear August

F C
Oh-oh-oh-oh, August

Am C
Oh, no, no, no, dear August

F C
Oh-oh-oh-oh, August

Am C
Dear August, tell me that there's light

F C
At the end of all this starless night

Am C
Dear August, please don't let me fall

F C Am
'Cause I don't know where this road is headed anymore
