[Verso 1]
It doesn't hurt me
                                                               Ab Bb Cm
You wanna feel how it feels?
                                                                [Bridge]
You wanna know, know that it doesn't hurt me?
                                                                'C'mon, baby, c'mon, c'mon, darling
You wanna hear about the deal I'm making?

You don't want to hurt me
                                                               And if I only could
But see how deep the bullet lies
                                                               Make a deal with God
Unaware that I'm tearing you asunder
                                                               And get him to swap our places
There is thunder in our hearts, baby
                                                               Be running up that road
So much hate for the ones we love?
                                                               Be running up that hill
Tell me, we both matter, don't we?
                                                               With no problems
